Starved Rock Lodge and Starved Rock State Park are more than a day trip! We offer a variety of activities, relaxing accommodations and more all under one roof. Call us today and let’s plan an unforgettable and fun adventure for your group.

We Have a Legend

In the 1780s, a band of Illiniwek Indians took refuge on top of a towering 125-foot sandstone butte and were surrounded by Ottawa and Pottawatomi tribes. After being trapped for many days, the Illiniwek died of starvation and the site became known as Starved Rock.

Try a New Destination!

Stay a night or two at the rustically beautiful Starved Rock Lodge, situated atop a wooded bluff overlooking the picturesque Illinois River. This 1930’s era stone and log Lodge is the only lodging facility located within Starved Rock State Park.

Starved Rock Lodge is proud to offer a variety of Group Tours featuring beauty, adventure and FUN!
